10.1. Bachelor of Business Administration – Amended May 15, 2026

On May 15, 2026, The New Brunswick Provincial Senate approved a motion to amend the Academic Calendar to align the standard course load for online and on-campus courses and to include consistent language regarding the cumulative GPA requirement for taking a fifth course.

New calendar entry:

10.1.2.12. Student Course Load

The recommended and standard course load for full-time students who are in good academic standing studying in the BC BBA, program is 4 courses (12 credits) per term. This represents a 100% course load. Students can elect to reduce their course load and take 3 courses (9 credits) per term and still meet the requirements for full-time status for financial aid purposes. Students in good academic standing with a strong cumulative GPA, typically 3.5 or above, may apply to the Program Head or designate, through the Registrar, for permission to take 1 additional course (3 credits) for a total maximum of 5 courses (15 credits) concurrently
